Got Trees?

You won't want to miss the

2017 Whidbey Island Forest Owners Field Day

Clinton, WA

Saturday, September 9th

Learn about current forest health issues, weeds, wildlife, mushrooms, fire risk, and more!

Forestry

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
EXTENSION

An Out-In-The-Woods Family Education Event

This is a smaller, local version of our regional field day. The Whidbey Field Day will feature a suite of outdoor workshops specifically for people with wooded property on Whidbey Island. Forestry specialists will be providing instruction, demonstrations, and resources throughout the day on a variety of topics that will help you to better understand, protect, enhance, and enjoy your Whidbey Island forest.

Whether you have just a couple acres of woods or a large forest tract, if you have trees on your property, this field day is for you!

Learn about:

- How to keep your trees healthy
- What proper tree spacing looks like
- How to plant trees for survival
- How to grow edible mushrooms
- How to control invasive weeds
- Improving wildlife habitat
- How to properly "limb-up" trees
- Protecting your home from fire
- Native plants in your forest
- Where to start for new landowners
- Small-scale sawmill demonstrations
- And more!
